DID YOU KNOW ?

- Benicia had a City Zoo ? It was located in our Historic City Park (now being threatened by a park-n-ride proposal) and was home to all manner of local wild animals that wandered into town.
- The first Anglo-American child was born in Benicia on August 28, 1848. His name was John J. Bryant and his parents were among the first settlers in our town in 1847. They lived on East B Street.
